

IRRIGATED PASTURE MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

Featuring Dan Macon, UCCE Livestock & Natural Resources Advisor

Saturday May 4th, 8am - 11:30am

PARTICIPANTS MUST PRE-REGISTER

Contact Kaycee Strong (530) 273-6185 ext. 244 or strongk@nidwater.com

Learn how to maintain your pasture and improve water management & system efficiency.

This workshop will be held at a private ranch in Penn Valley. It will feature indoor & outdoor presentations.

Bring a chair, walking shoes & sunscreen. Light refreshments will be provided. Topics will include:

- Understanding the physical & biological characteristics of your soil
- Estimating soil moisture
- Types of sprinkler & flood pasture irrigation
- Irrigation Pasture Forages commonly planted
- Fertilization Stages
- Irrigation management & scheduling to improve efficiency
- Grazing management practices or irrigated pastures

Nevada County
Resource Conservation District
www.NCRCD.org

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources